There will be many opportunities to get involved with this event hosting 15 universities for a 54-hole event. Volunteers are needed in the following areas: Private Housing, Live Scoring, Course Spotters, and Registration. Sylvia Roberts is leading the Housing Committee, if you have any interest in hosting. Golfing Achievements

EAGLES:

1/2 Wayne Green holed out his 3rd shot into the par 5 hole #8 for his "3". The 9-iron approach from 136 yards was a pleasant surprise after struggling with the first two shots on the hole. Congratulations for a great recovery!

1/17 James White was on a roll with some good play and one great shot on hole #14. His 3rd shot into the green using a gap wedge found the cup for a "3". Nice Shot!

1/20 Sara Sensenbach recorded an Eagle "2" during the LGA Play Day. Her great score came on the most difficult hole for the Ladies, hole #4. Her shot of 125 yards using a 9-wood was right on target. Great shot!

PERSONAL BEST ROUNDS:

1/3 Manny Oliver recorded his personal best round as a JGCC Member. His score of 82 was very consistent with nine-hole scores of 41. Very good round and congratulations!

Ladies 18-Holers

On March 7th–10th, the UNF Collegiate Ladies Golf Tournament will be held at JGCC. Host housing is still needed for some of the 100 participating golfers. Residents of JGCC were very generous to open their homes for our guests last year. We would love to have even more homes this year. Thank you to those who have already volunteered. All that is needed to host is a bed for each girl and shower facilities. Meals and transportation are provided. Please contact Sylvia Roberts (smrob39@comcast.net) or Coach Joanne Berglund (j.steele@unf.edu) for more information if you would care to meet and house some of our finest collegiate lady golfers from colleges across the U.S. It is a wonderful experience for them to be here and for us as hosts.

Meanwhile, our determined LGA golfers have been on the course, in spite of the challenging winter weather, enjoying their games of golf as well as socializing with each other. At the end of February they will be starting their Match Play ladder tournament. Sign up to play in this multi-week tournament. See you on the greens!
